

Psalms 91

I/we will live in the shelter of the Most High God.

I will rest in the shadow of God almighty.

I will say of the Lord, He is my refuge and fortress, my God in whom I trust.

He will save me from all attacks of the enemy, sickness, disease and death.

He will cover me with His feathers, and under His wings

I will find refuge. His faithfulness will be my shield and will cover me.

I will not fear what comes at night, or by day, I will not fear the enemy.

A thousand may fall at my side, ten thousand at my right hand, but it will not come near me and my family.

I will only observe with my eyes and see the punishment of the wicked.

“The LORD is my refuge,” and I make the Most High my dwelling place,

¹⁰ no harm will overtake me or my family, no disaster will come near me and my house.

For He will command His angels concerning me to guard me in all your ways; they will lift me up in their hands, so that I will not strike my foot against a stone.

I will walk on the lion and the snake, I will trample the great lion and the snake.

¹⁴ “Because He loves me,” says the LORD, “I will rescue him;

I will protect him, for he acknowledges my name.

He will call on me, and I will answer him;

I will be with him in trouble, I will deliver him and honor him.

¹⁶ With long life I will satisfy him and show him my salvation.”
